PACK YOUR BAGS
FOR THE 5TH EDITION OF THE
NATIONAL TRANS HEALTH CONFERENCE

ATLANTA, GEORGIA – In just under three-weeks the Board of Directors and Ronnie E. Bass, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Someone Cares, Inc. of Atlanta will welcome conference attendees to the 5th annual National Trans Health Conference at the Hilton Atlanta Airport in Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Kimberly Parker, of Texas Woman’s University will open the conclave on November 8th, 2018 at noon, speaking on “Sharing the Voice that Matters: Innovative Data Sharing for Improving Transgender Health. Dana Williams, of the Community Wellness Project will close out the conference on Saturday, November 10th, 2018 with a workshop titled, “Closing the Gap: Addressing the facilitation skills needed to implement scripted interventions: Transgender Women Involved in Strategies for Transformation (TWIST) as an example.

Conference goers will experience three-days packed with educational workshops centered around Trans* topics in mental health, advocacy, legal, health, spiritual, HIV and innovation as presenters drive home the conference theme, “Transgender Wholeness: Mind, Body & Spirit.”

Each year, the planning committee endeavors to expand the experience of the attendees and this year, it’s no difference. In partnership with the Alliance Theater, the conference committee is proud and excited to present the play, “How to Become a Man in 127 Easy Steps” created and performed by Scott Turner Schofield. Mr. Schofield became the first openly transgender actor in daytime television in the United States with the recurring role of “Nick” on CBS’s The Bold and the Beautiful. He is part of Hollywood’s Transgender Tipping Point, and one of the very few females to male actors in mainstream media. Becoming A Man in 127 EASY Steps is a collection of 127 stories comprising one epic becoming — pre-, during, and post-gender transition. Stories of love. Honest dialogue about poor choices and their consequences. Gut-splittingly funny stories of a queer feminist who lives in a white straight man’s body. Revelations earned by walking through fire. Wry, personal and relatable social insight gained from nearly 20 years of living a publicly transgender life. It is currently in production as a feature film.

The conference was created to provide for a meeting of minds, the appreciation for different perspectives and to affirm the commonalities between and for the Transgender community. By convening all the pertinent stakeholders to have provocative dialogue, providers can continually improve, find solutions and further enhance safe places, access to care and most importantly ensure equality without bias is the order of the day within the LGBTQ community.
